

We begin right at the start of the story, when the Doctor has vanished. Dodo gets uptight: 'I'm going to see if any of these controls will bring him back,' she says.

The Doctor's voice booms out: 'You will do no such thing, young lady!'

'Doctor, where are you?'

'I seem to have become invisible.'

'Well, don't worry, Doctor, we'll get you back!' Dodo reaches and pulls a switch. Nothing happens.

'I said, *don't* touch the console!' thunders the Doctor. 'I may be invisible, but unfortunately for you, young lady, I am not intangible. I will not be disobeyed in my own TARDIS!'

Suddenly Dodo finds herself suspended a few feet above the floor, horizontal and facedown. She can feel the Doctor's lap underneath her, but to the onlooking Steven it looks as if she's swimming in the air, kicking her legs as if to propel herself but getting nowhere. Her newfound skirt takes on a life of its own, wriggling up her thighs, over the tops of her fishnet stockings and up to her waist. Dodo squeals in protest as she realizes Steven can see her underwear.

'Now then, young woman, if you're going to travel with us, you need to learn several things right away,' says the Doctor.

SMACK! A hand-shaped indentation appears across the seat of Dodo's plain white panties. Dodo yelps, but though her legs and torso buck upwards, her waist seems solidly anchored to one place.

'I am the captain of this ship. You will always do as I say, without question or comment!'

SMACK! Another handprint suddenly appears on Dodo's bottom, and vanishes just as quickly as the curves spring back into shape. 'Owww!'

'In future you will ask permission before you go fruiting around in the TARDIS wardrobe.'

SMACK! 'Ouch!'

'You will learn to speak properly, not in that barbarous vernacular of yours.'

SMACK! Dodo's face contorts into a rictus of pain. 'Yeow!'

'And you will never, never, NEVER touch the TARDIS controls without my express permission!'

SMACK! SMACK! SMACK! SMACK! Dodo's howls echo around the TARDIS.

'Now, do you understand me?'

SMACK! SMACK! 'Yes, yes, Doctor, I understand,' sobs Dodo. 'May I get up now?'

The skirt wriggles back down over her bottom and the hemline returns to its usual position above her knees. 'Yes, you may. And remember, if you misbehave yourself, you will be spanked again. Hard!'

Dodo struggles to her feet and the story moves onward, with the travelers leaving the TARDIS to find they are in the domain of the Toymaker. But we haven't quite finished with Dodo yet. On to Part 2, when Steven and Dodo have to find the one safe chair out of a choice of seven. Five have been eliminated, and Dodo seems to think that leaves her with good enough odds. She sits down, only to find that it's the wrong chair: she has sat in the freezing chair!

The deviation from the televised story needed here is minimal. Steven pulls Dodo out of the deadly chair, but after that he has to do two things very quickly: he needs to sit in the safe chair, to ensure that they win the game, and he also needs to warm up the chilly Dodo. Fortunately the two are compatible, especially as the coldest part of Dodo is the part that has been in direct contact with the freezing chair itself. So Steven sits in the safe chair, turns Dodo over his knee, and begins to spank her thoroughly on the seat of her skirt. Her buns will be as warm as toast when he's finished with her, and the rest of her gets a good workout too as she struggles and kicks! 'Perhaps this will make sure you don't go sitting anywhere else you shouldn't,' says Steven as he spansks...
